PROFILE

Restaurant operations and management professional with experience across full-service and quick-service environments, back-of-house food production, sushi operations, and higher-education administration. Previously managed a 90-person quick-service team — scheduling, labor cost control, hiring, discipline, inventory, and daily store operations. Currently leading training and sushi production at a longtime employer, looking to move back into a management role full-time.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Bamboo Sushi & Hibachi — Niceville, FL 2007–Present (multiple periods)

Sushi Chef & Trainer / Former FOH Manager / Former Line Cook

- Returned to Bamboo across four separate stretches, working nearly every part of the restaurant: hibachi line cook, front-of-house manager, sushi support, and now sushi chef and trainer.
- As FOH manager, supervised front-of-house staff and service flow, coordinating closely with kitchen and sushi teams to keep both sides in sync.
- Currently run sushi-bar production during service and train new hires on prep, stocking, cleaning, and service standards — trained roughly 7–8 employees to date.
- Open and close the department independently, resolve customer issues before they reach a manager, and hold the line on food safety and presentation.

Whataburger — Crestview & DeFuniak Springs, FL 2015–2018

Manager / General Manager in Development

- Scheduled and managed labor for a team of about 90 employees across two locations, hitting labor-cost targets while keeping every shift covered.

- Owned hiring end to end — interviewing, onboarding, training, and handling discipline when necessary.
- Ran daily store operations: safe counts, bank deposits, manager logs, and store walks for cleanliness, safety, and staffing gaps.
- Placed weekly food and supply orders and coordinated stock transfers with nearby locations when one store ran short, including personally transporting product between stores when needed.
- Handled customer issues directly and kept shifts moving during high-volume rushes.

Northwest Florida State College — Niceville, FL

Admissions Navigator · 2021-2022

- Recruited prospective students for the college, representing NWFSC at outreach events and presenting to individuals and groups.

Executive Assistant to the SVP of Student Services · 2019-2021

- Managed calendars, meetings, and follow-through on cross-department projects for the Senior VP of Student Services, working directly with sensitive institutional information.
